Once again, we will be camping in the Springbrook group camping area at Oak Openings Metropark. The cost will be $5.00 per person which includes camping fee and 2 dog tags.

Ranger Kids will require their dad's or guardian to camp overnight and enjoy some activities with their dad. All other rangers will require a permission slip or dad present with their boy.

The challenge set before all the boys will prove to be fun and adventurous along with developing team work. The ranger kids, discovery & adventure ranges should come prepared for the following team work events:

This year our theme is Mission Find Your Way, requiring some skills you will need to know in advance to help through the course. Following are a list of encounters each team will be faced with testing their skills and knowledge. Each team will have ranger kids, discovery & adventure rangers evenly matched.

Each team or patrol will consist of 6 – 8 boys who are trained to encounter the following challenges. Your team will have 15 minute too complete each station.

Challenges:

1. procure lunch.
2. knowledge station.
3. widows web.
4. feed the team.
5. cook lunch.
6. lend a hand.
7. launch three.

Challenge Event Description:

At each station teams will receive instructions, to complete the task before them. Any materials required for a station will be provided by that leader. Each challenge will be timed and recorded by the station leader and your teams' total time for all seven events will be your team number. The lowest teams' number will be the winning team. They will receive all the bragging right for the DAY only. Plus the mystery gift.
